Soldiers in the Water.

There were some hundred or more soldiers from the transport Sheridan in the water near the Oceanic wharf this morning, nearly all supplied with life preservers. When a steamer boat approached the soldiers piled in and tried to capsize it. The two native sailors were powerless and had it not been for the officer of the day the boat must surely have been overturned.

KAMALO SUGAR COMPANY

Big Meeting of Assessable Stockholders Held in Foster Hall.

Attorneys Retained to Handle Case—Promoters to be Asked For Accounting—Letter From R. H. Hitchcock.

There was a big meeting of about seventy of the stockholders in the Kamalo Sugar Co. in Foster Hall last evening, this number of men representing 27,840 shares of assessable stock.

It was decided that the case should be gone on with at once and the following attorneys were selected to carry on the fight: Paul Neumann, Geo. A. Davis and W. A. Henshall. These men will find out, if possible, what has become of certain monies paid in by the stockholders.

The principal speakers at the meeting were Manager Weight of Kahuku, Larry Dee, H. L. Evans, W. A. Henshall and a number of others.

The case is to come up very soon. The directors have been notified to give the promoters a certain length of time to render an account but this will be a difficult matter as these men, Messrs. Frank Hustace, J. F. Morgan, J. J. Egan and F. H. Foster are not in town, so the case will undoubtedly go on as arranged.

A letter from R. H. Hitchcock received by one of the stockholders saying that it is his intention to get to Honolulu as soon as possible for the purpose of pushing the case for what it is worth, on behalf of the holders of assessable stock.

Mr. Hitchcock is a director and one of the big stockholders in the Kamalo Sugar Co.

DIED IN LAHAINA.

Volcano Smoking.

Passengers on the arrived Mauna Loa report the existence of considerable smoke from Hawaii's big volcano. It is much more talked of in Hilo and the natives especially are wondering if Pele will again awake to action.

The Republic of Hawaii vs. O. R. & L. Co. is the title of a suit begun in the Circuit Court to compel defendant corporation to pay $1471.85 the amount due upon a contract for water.

KAMAAINA PASSES AWAY

Death of John M. Phillips at 12:06 This Afternoon.

Long Illness of Six Weeks—Life of Veteran Plumber—His Kindness of Heart—Other Facts.

In the passing away at 12:06 p. m. today of John Phillips the country has lost one of its best citizens and his friends one of the most generous, kindly and upright men that ever set foot on Hawaiian soil.

For six weeks, deceased had been confined to his bed, his complaint being hemorrhage of the brain. His physicians did all they could in their power but the malady had taken too strong hold and at the hour mentioned, he passed quietly away.

John Phillips was 57 years of age. He was a native of Glasgow, Scotland, which place he left when but a young man. Going to Montreal, Canada, he engaged in business there for a short time and then made his way to San Francisco where he was appointed superintendent plumber of the Pacific Mail wharf.

It was while engaged in this business that J. F. Gillilan, father of Archie Gillilan, wrote to Mr. Phillips and told him of the excellent opening here for a first class plumber.

Mr. Phillips packed up and came right down. This was twenty years ago. Entering into partnership with Andrew Brown the two set up shop on Nuuanu avenue in the vicinity of Hart's old ice cream parlors.

After remaining there for some time they changed and went over into the von Holt building. When this was torn down a frame building was put up in the same place and this was at once occupied by the plumbing firm.

In 1886 Mr. Brown withdrew from the firm and, since that time, the work was carried on entirely by Mr. Phillips.

It was in 1889 that John Phillips had such an overwhelming victory in this district as the candidate of the Citizens Union Ticket for the House of Representatives.

Mr. Phillips was always active in the promotion of the welfare of the country and lost no chance where a good stroke of work counted. Realizing this fact and the value of Mr. Phillips' advice he was elected to the Council of State in 1898, his commission being signed July 8.

Deceased was a Mason of high degree as will be shown by the following offices which he held from time to time:

Passed Master of Hawaiian Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M. Charter Member and Passed Master Pacific Lodge No. 822, A. F. & A. M.

Passed High Priest Honolulu Royal Arch Chapter. Prelate Honolulu Commandery No. 1.

John Phillips was a man who could never seem to do enough for his friends and those who called on him for assistance. He gave with a free hand of what he had and when there was stormy weather in the lives of his friends John Phillips was always the one to be the peace-maker.

In business John Phillips was most scrupulous. Never did any complaint return to the door of his shop after he had finished a job of work.

Deceased leaves an insurance of $1000. He has a son, Andrew Brown Phillips of the Water Works Department and a daughter, Miss Mabel Phillips.

From tomorrow on the body will lie in the Masonic temple. The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon, the Masons conducting the services. Interment will take place in Nuuanu cemetery next to the grave of Mrs. Phillips. The government will send the band and a platoon of police.

KIHEI PRICES IN A BALLOON

Likelihood of Fewer Assessments for a Year.

Agreement With Hawaiian Commercial—Probability of Reducing Capital—Stock Scarce on the Street.

Kihei stock is scarcer than hen's teeth just at present. There is a boom on and holders of the security are looking happier than they have for some time. Just in proportion as the stockholders are jubilant the brokers are looking worried. They can't find anyone who wants to sell.

The rise has been caused by the announcement that assessments on the stock will be few and far between; the probability that the capital stock will be reduced by one million dollars if the wishes of one of the heaviest holders are carried out.

An agreement has just been entered into, the details of which are not entirely complete for the Hawaiian Commercial Company to do the grinding for Kihei for the next twelve years at the rate of $12 per ton. As far as H. C. & S. is concerned this is very fine as the directors of that company figure profit of $80,000 per year for the grinding.

The saving to Kihei will be the doing away with the immediate need of $6,000 for mill and construction. As this sum would come directly through the assessments levied on the shareholders it not being needed will reduce the amount and frequency of the levying of them.

The mill that was ordered for Kihei is understood will be taken over by the Olua Plantation. Arrangements are now almost complete for making the capacity of the mills of the H. C. & S. Co. 70,000 tons in a season.

Mr. Dillingham when seen this morning denied the statement that the Kihei mill ordered was to be turned over to Olua saying "The yield from Olua will be 5000 tons and the capacity of that Kihei mill would not be sufficient."

The general impression among the brokers is that the new arrangement is very fine for the Hawaiian Commercial but they don't see where the great benefit to Kihei comes in.

"It is true," said one well known broker this morning, "that the cutting down of assessments means much to the stockholders of Kihei but if the yield as is expected will be 10,000 tons it will cost Kihei $120,000 a year for grinding. At the end of five years the $60,000 required for a mill will have been expended and the plantation will have nothing to show for its outlay."

The stock jumped to $13.25 on change this morning and nearly one thousand shares changed hands. After the session several offers of $15 per share were refused and one man holding a hundred shares would not talk sell for less than $20 the par value.

This afternoon on the stock exchange, Kihei sold for $ 6.25. The offer of $16 was made for 1000 shares.

Drunk Swipes.

A soldier from the transport Sheridan was arrested last night on the charge of drunkenness. He had been out drinking swipes and was in such a paralyzed condition that he was unable to move, although able to talk and tell of where he had been.

Licenses Granted.

At a very short session of the Cabinet yesterday forenoon E. Davaunelle of Kaunakakai and D. H. Kabaulelio of Pukoo were granted retail liquor licenses. This completes the list for Molokai.

Stockholders in the Orpheum Co., Ltd., are notified that shares with unpaid assessments are delinquent thirty days from this day. See New Today.

TALK WITH MR. MOTT-SMITH

What Minister of Foreign Affairs Says About Hawaii.

United States a Negligent Papa—Wants More Executive Orders—On Future Legislation—Other Matters.

Minister Mott-Smith was seen by a BULLETIN reporter yesterday forenoon just as he returned from an outing trip to Waialua and spoke at some length on the state of affairs now existing in the Islands.

"It seems to me that the United States is just now acting the part of a negligent papa," said Mr. Mott-Smith. "For my part, I should like to see more executive orders so that we may be able to see just where we stand. This is a point the importance of which cannot be too strongly emphasized."

"I do not believe that the passage by the next Congress of a Territorial bill for Hawaii is by any means assured. We are just as liable as not to be hung up here for the next two or three years. There is no telling what politics will do."

"Of course this will be a dangerous practice for the United States to start. There is a great difference between territory conquered by force of arms and territory ceded by treaty. If the treaty phase is left out then we are virtually placed before the world in the same position as conquered territory. Would this be right in any way?"

"I believe thoroughly that the people here have always crawled too much to the United States. There is nothing that Americans like to see more than straight out and out digging for one's self and a spirit of independence throughout."

"Although Hawaii has been rather in the position of a supplicant, I believe an independent front would have accomplished more."

"What do I think about the utterances of the BULLETIN. Well, I know of course that the BULLETIN represents what we may call the opposition and yet I read it every day. I believe an honest expression of the other side of a question is always good. Further, I do not believe a community without different sides would amount to much. When the different sides are brought out one is sure to find a healthy condition of affairs. Each side sees the points of its opponent, the public discusses an issue and everyone is fully informed so that no one can claim being in the dark."

An Afternoon Concert.

The military band attached to the 32nd Regiment will give a concert at the Hawaiian hotel from 3 to 5 this afternoon. The band is a very fine one and there is no doubt whatever of a large attendance.

Speeches at the Head Luns.

Waialuku, Oct. 7.—W. G. Scott, formerly deputy sheriff of Maui, assumed this week his duties as head luns of Spreckelsville plantation. His friends are congratulating on his rapid promotion.

CUT BY PRIVATE SCHNAPP

Fight Over a Game of Craps on Transport Sheridan.

Private Ritter Wounded in the Neck—Schnapp Under Arrest—Thirty-third's Men Much Put Out Over Affair.

An exciting event which for a time promised to be a very serious affair took place on board the huge U. S. A. Transport Sheridan during the quiet watches of yesterday afternoon.

Many of the boys were engaged in playing cards, shooting craps and otherwise passing the time agreeably when they were suddenly startled by shouts of "a fight! a fight!" and a wild rush to the scene followed.

Private Schnapp of Company D and Private Ritter of Company L who had been shooting craps together had commenced quarreling over the game and were now clinched in a desperate struggle. Schnapp was formerly a Texas Ranger and his antagonist also had seen service calculated to harden his muscles and make him no easy victim in a fight.

The men of the Thirty-third who were on hand thought at first that it was but a friendly scrap and did not interfere until Schnapp managing to draw a dangerous looking pocket knife made a mad thrust with the weapon at Ritter's throat. Up to this time Ritter had been thinking he had a private soap, he saw his mistake too late, however, when he received the blade of the pocket knife in his neck.

As soon as the men of the 33rd realized that the affair was in earnest they seized the contestants from behind and had them quickly separated.

Ritter's wound was examined by the surgeon and though it was an ugly gash was declared not to be of a dangerous nature; the wound was dressed carefully and beyond this and a few bruises Ritter is all right.

Private Schnapp was placed under arrest.

The boys of the Regiment are very much put out over the occurrence as the Thirty-third has the reputation of being one of the finest lot of men in the service and they are very much averse to trouble of any kind.
